

Hot Off the Press

Monday, April 6, 2009

Calling all Colour and Output Specialists

If you are skilled in the area of colour or output management and can spare a day to help finalise the new National Skill Standards developed through CPISC, then please register today.

Focus group sessions to validate the new National Skill Standards have been scheduled as follows:

- April 15 Colour Specialist – Ryerson University, Toronto
- April 16 Output Specialist – Heidelberg Canada, Mississauga
- April 27 Colour Specialist – Nova Scotia Community College, Darhmouth
- May 4 Output Specialist – Pacific Newspaper Group, Vancouver

Breakfast and lunch will be provided at no cost, and all sessions start at 8.30am with breakfast.

Your contribution will be recognized during the release of the Skill Standards in November. Unfortunately CPISC is unable to cover travel expenses.

To register or to find out more, contact:
Heather McLaren at h.mclaren@cpisc-csic.ca

Register now for CPISC Forum 2009

- A free information event for the Canadian printing industry -

The annual CPISC Forum is an opportunity for people in the printing and graphic communications industry to network and hear from leading industry speakers about current issues.

Forum 2009 will focus on 'Skills for a changing print environment'.

Forum highlights include a keynote address on Life with print, by Daniel Dejan of Sappi Fine Paper, an economic forecast by Michael Burt from the Conference Board of Canada and a regional update from Jeff Taylor of Hemlock.

Participants will also have an opportunity to share their views about how the Canadian Printing Industries Sector Council can work better to meet the skills and human resource development needs of the industry.

This year's Forum will be held in Vancouver BC on June 12, 2009, at the Renaissance Vancouver Hotel Harbourside.

The Forum is free to attend and includes a free breakfast and lunch, but space is limited so please register early.

To find out more about the program and to register, please click here.

The CPISC Forum 2009 is possible thanks to the generous support of our sponsors:

It all begins with paper®