

November 9, 2009

MEDIA ADVISORY

CPISC to release national skill standards for output and colour specialists

The Canadian Printing Industries Sector Council (CPISC) will release national skill standards for output and colour specialists on November 13 in Mississauga.

These standards will define what an employee should know and be able to do on the job, and will serve as an invaluable resource for print industry employers, current and future employees, students and educators.

The latest skill standards are a part of a series created by CPISC and have been enthusiastically embraced by industry employers, employees and educators.

When: November 13, 2009 at 5:00 PM EST

Where: Room Lyra A, International Centre, Toronto (6900 Airport Road)

Attending: Jeff Ekstein and Duncan Brown, CPISC Co-Chairs
Marie Eveline, CPISC Executive Director
Mike Drimmie, President, CEP Local 591G Toronto

-30-

For more information, contact:

Jung-Suk Ryu
Manager of Communications & Marketing
Canadian Printing Industries Sector Council
613-688-0293 / cell: 613-762-9878

Visit www.cpisc-csic.ca