

OTTAWA, Ontario June 9, 2008 - The Canadian Printing Industries Sector Council (CPISC) and le Comité sectoriel de main d'oeuvre des communications graphiques du Québec (CSMO) are jointly hosting FORUM 2008 focusing on improving industry standards and addressing technological changes for today and tomorrow. The event will take place on Friday, June 13, 2008 at the Delta Centre-Ville (777 rue University Street, Montreal, Quebec) from 9:00 am to 3:30 pm.

WHO WILL BE ATTENDING

Over 100 delegates from all sectors of the industry have registered for the FORUM including owners, employees and suppliers as well as educators and government representatives.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

A sneak peek at CPISC's national press skill standards.

New developments in technology

Interactive session on the future of printing

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Warren Werbitt, President & CEO Pazazz Printing will provide his unique take on the future of the printing industry.

REGISTRATION AND PROGRAM

There is NO registration fee to attend the FORUM.

A copy of the FORUM registration form and program at a glance is attached. For further information, visit the CPISC website at www.cpisc-csic.ca or contact CPISC toll free at 1-888-688-0293, or by email at info@cpisc-csic.ca

The Canadian Printing Industries Sector Council, funded by the Government of Canada's Sector Council Program, is a not-for profit organization responsible for the human resources strategy for the printing and graphic communications sector.

-30-

Information:

Marie Eveline, Executive Director (613) 688-0293 ext. 2